Tike Mwambipile Mwanamke Imara Chief of Party

Dear readers,

It is with great pleasure that I present to you this feature of our Newsletter which introduces our first year of the Mwanamke Imara Project. It is a project that aims at ending violence in the targeted regions through improving access to justice for women and young girls on right based issues (i.e., Land and property rights, inheritance, and gender-based violence), amplifying women voices and participation in leadership, decision making and governance; and strengthening women and youth economic groups in Mbeya, Njombe and Kilimanjaro and enhance their access to resources including finances. I hope you enjoy reading about the milestones reached.

The overall objective of Mwanamke Imara Project is to end all forms of violence and discrimination against women and young people in Tanzania by empowering women and young people to challenge violence and discrimination at the family level and within the community.

Specific Objectives:

1. To increase women and girls' access to justice on right based issues (land and property rights, inheritance, and gender-based violence) in Mbeya, Njombe and Kilimanjaro.
2. Increase women and young people's voices and participation in leadership, decision making structures and governance in Mbeya, Njombe, and Kilimanjaro.
3. Strengthening women and youth economic groups by enhancing their access to information and control over resources in Mbeya, Njombe and Kilimanjaro.

Envisaged Project Results:

Result 1: Improved access to justice to women and young people on right based issues in Mbeya, Njombe and Kilimanjaro.

Result 2: Strengthened GBV protection and response mechanism to effectively address GBV in Mbeya, Njombe and Kilimanjaro.

Result 3: Amplified women and young people's voices and participation in leadership, community decision making structures and governance.

3. Tanzania Network of Legal Aid Providers (TANLAP)
4. Kilimanjaro Women Information Exchange Company Organization (KWIECO)

Implementation of the Mwanamke Imara Activity is made possible through generous support of the American People through USAID/Tanzania.

Geographical Coverage:

The activity targets three regions of Tanzania, namely Mbeya, Njombe and Kilimanjaro whereas the total direct beneficiaries expected under this program is 180,073 for the entire 3 years of the project and expects to indirectly reach 688,710 people in Mbeya, Njombe and Kilimanjaro.

- Among the success stories of the Mwanamke Imara Legal Aid Scheme is the story of Stella Rhoda Mwangamula from Kikota village in Kiwira ward. She had a land case originated from a probate cause from a land which was left to her by her deceased mother. Her uncle wanted to take it from her claiming that she was not worthy of inheriting a land from her mother. Mwanamke Imara through TANLAP assisted her to maintain her ownership of the land by emerging successful on the land case that was filed against her by the uncle.

4. Provision of bicycles to paralegals and community animators in facilitating access to justice to local communities eases their movements as they serve fellow community members through provision of legal aid services. A total of 120 paralegals and community animators were provided with branded Mwanamke Imara

5. wanamke Imara held mobile legal aid camps to community members in remote areas. This has been a good practice in provision of legal aid services to community members where these camps are put in open areas where most community members have access to, such as near by the marketplace. Mwanamke Imara's legal officers, paralegals and district legal officers from the District Authorities also participate in the provision of legal aid services in the project sites.

6. Establishment of the Legal Support Network on family law related issues managed to draft the Anti Gender Based Violence (GBV) Bill and the Code of Conduct for family law practitioners as part of enhancing access to justice and promotion of women rights.

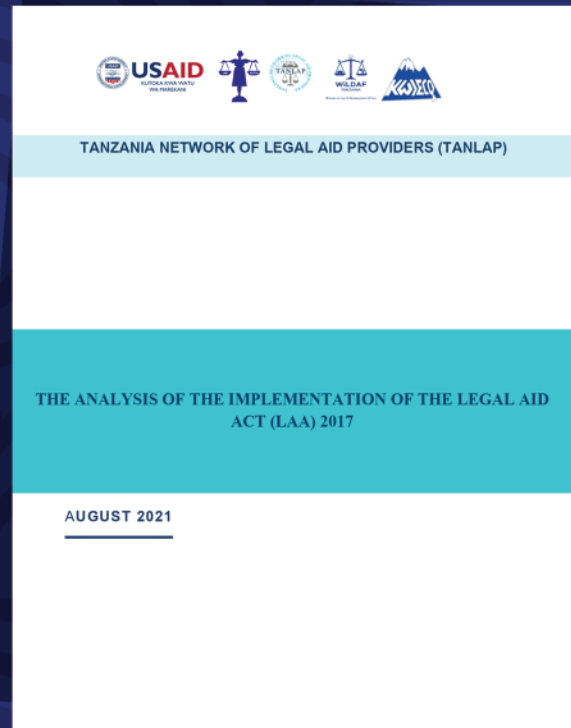

7. Increased collaboration with justice delivery stakeholders as a way to contribute to increasing access to justice to vulnerable women and youths in the project sites. Mwanamke Imara through TANLAP worked with the President's Office - Regional, Administrative and Local Government (PO-RALG) and the Ministry of Constitution and Legal Affairs (MoCLA) to review the paralegal training manual and guideline.

Strengthening women and youth economic groups by enhancing their access to information and control over resources in Mbeya, Njombe and Kilimanjaro.

Mwanamke Imara Activity through KWIECO is working to strengthen and enhance women and youth economic groups on access to and control over resources and information. Mwanamke Imara activity believes that economic empowerment to women and youths is amongst greatest stimuli factor to promote access to justice and eradicate gender-based violence associated with economic dependency.

1. So far Mwanamke Imara Activity has capacitated a total of 300 economic groups consisting of 4,028 members (1348 youths: 2680 women). Such groups engage themselves in different economic activities such as poultry farming, bakery, livestock keeping, "batik" and soap making.

2. Mwanamke Imara through its business guarantee scheme created a reserved fund with AMANA bank to support guarantee scheme where women and youth can access financial assistance to improve their enterprises activities. Mwanamke Imara through its business guarantee scheme from AMANA bank has provided financial empowerment valuing at 153,600,000 Tanzania shillings (TZS) to 231 economic beneficiaries in Mbeya Region. The beneficiaries are now able to expand their businesses, buy more business equipment and other goods which attract sales and capital expansion.
